Communication on the job site is one of the most important aspects of a successful construction project. Spanish In-A Pinch, conducted by 2nd Language Success, teaches the basic “conversational” Spanish that allows for “in-a-pinch” communication. The program utilizes a VisualPhonetic™ System that allows participants to learn and recall key Spanish words by association with English language terms, pronunciations, and visual cues. This is coupled with field transaction flashcards that allow you to communicate basic request and other verbal exchanges.

The instructor Deby Jones has taught this program to numerous local governments, industries, and businesses including the National Home Builders Association and the International Code Council. This program is recognized by the ICC towards certification continuing education credits.

The full day program will provide the basics of Spanish communications in the morning with advanced applications in the afternoon. Participants will be provided with supporting handouts and laminated field communication transaction cards that fold to pocket size. The program will cost $75.00 per participant and will include all instruction, handouts, and field cards. Lunch will be on your own.
