Green Builder magazine is on the hunt for the best green homes being built today. Don't miss your opportunity to participate in Green Builder magazine's first annual Green Builder Home of the Year Awards—your home could be featured in our special awards issue in December.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: All residential projects with a grand opening or first occupancy between January 2007 and September 2008 are eligible, including but not limited to: single family, spec, custom homes, production, remodeled homes, developments, or multifamily. Third party certification (such as NAHB Green Building Guidelines, LEED, Energy Star) is not an entry requirement.

DEADLINE AND ENTRY FEE:

Hurry! All project submissions must be received by September 12, 2008.

Entry fee is $125 per project entry.

HOW TO ENTER: Please email us at awards@greenbuildermag.com to confirm your plans to participate. Include your name and your firm's contact information, then download your entry packet here. It's so easy! Payment for your entry fee (check or money order) should be clipped with your project entry submission and received by September 12, 2008.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Loretta Williams at lwilliams@greenbuildermag.com
